

Department of Agricultural Leadership, Education, and Communication Master of Agricultural Leadership Degree Program

Intent to Participate Form

Completing and submitting this form indicates your interest in the Department of Agricultural Leadership, Education, and Communication Master of Agricultural Leadership Program. Once the department receives your completed form, you will be sent a complete information packet regarding the registration procedures for this program. The following is a listing of the key features and requirements of the program.

Key Features:

- Master of Agricultural Leadership degree is approximately a two-year program
- Courses will be offered using GSAMS, Web delivery, and/or by using other innovative teaching methods
- Designed primarily for practicing agriculture teachers and county extension agents
- Individual advisor in your area of specialization

Application Process:

- Submit Intent to Participate Form
- Submit Statement of Purpose
- Take GRE
- Submit UGA Graduate School Application and Application Fee
- Send all Undergraduate Transcripts to UGA Graduate School
- Graduate School Recommendation Forms – you will need names and email addresses of those giving you a recommendation

Name _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Work Phone _____

Home Phone _____

Cell Phone _____

Email _____

Signature _____ Date _____

Send completed form to Coordinator of Academic Programs:
Dennis Duncan – MAL Coordinator, University of Georgia, 106 Four Towers Bldg, Athens, GA 30602