

SEABROOK ISLAND
CLUB

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE

WHERE: Seabrook Island Club Seabrook Island, SC

GOLF COURSE HISTORY: The Seabrook Island Club is a thirty-six hole private club located on Seabrook Island near historic Charleston, SC. The Ocean Winds course was designed by Willard Byrd and constructed in 1972. The Crooked Oaks course is a Robert Trent Jones, Sr. design that was constructed in 1979. Crooked Oaks was redesigned and renovated by John B. Lafoy in 1999. The $2.3 million dollar project included the complete renovation of all tee and green complexes, installation of a new irrigation system, new drainage and a complete bunker renovation. The summer of 2003 Ocean Winds was converted to Champion Bermuda and the following summer Crooked Oaks was converted. Both the Ocean Winds and Crooked Oaks courses are certified members of the Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary Program.

EXPERIENCE: The Seabrook Island Club offers interns a unique opportunity to learn how to manage Ultra dwarf Bermuda along the South Carolina coast. An attempt will be made to involve interns into as many aspects of golf course maintenance as possible. These duties will include, but are not limited to:

- ◆ The daily operation of both courses (Set Up, Mow greens, rake bunkers, etc)
- ◆ Irrigation repair and maintenance (Handwatering, troubleshooting, etc)
- ◆ Calibration, Fertilization and chemical spray applications
- ◆ UltraDwarf bermudagrass greens management
- ◆ Special project work
- ◆ Strategies associated with managing turfgrass with poor water quality
- ◆ Continue conversion of Tees to Seashore Paspalum
- ◆ Master Plan Renovations Scheduled
