The above horses are part of the operant conditioning and training course offered at the University of Georgia. During this class, these horses are trained by students under the instruction of Dr. Kylee Jo Johnson-Duberstein and her teaching assistants. These horses will be offered for sale at the end of the spring 2009 semester. Pre-sale viewing is available on all of these horses.

All horses are current on vaccinations, worming, farrier work. The horses will be exposed to the wash rack, round pen work, longe line work, clipping, and riding throughout the semester.

For further information and viewing of any of these horses please contact Dr. Kylee Jo Johnson-Duberstein at 706-542-7032 or kyleejo@uga.edu or <http://www.ads.uga.edu/extension/horses.html>

Thank you for your interest.

See you at the SALE! ☺
