

Historic Downtown Canton Farmer's Market...

Vegetables and herbs

Fresh Eggs

Baked goods (fresh baked)

Honey and syrup

Specialty food

Bedding plants and shrubs

Locally grown plants and fresh cut field and garden flowers

Be sure to attend the opening of the Historic Downtown Canton Farmers Market, Saturday, May 23rd. The market will be held in downtown Central Park each Saturday from 9:00-1:00 pm. All food products are locally grown.

Canton's Farmers' Market is now seeking farmers and vendors for 2009. The open air market will feature farm fresh produce and baked goods, food specialty items, fresh garden flowers, bedding plants, shrubs and herbs. We are very committed to our community and to the local farmers, artisans and downtown small business owners. BUY LOCAL AND SHOP LOCAL. There is still plenty of room! If you are interested in becoming a vendor contact Ginger Garrard at 770-704-1548.