Parents: Volunteer to

“Make the Best Better” in 4-H

As a 4-H'er, I was less than thrilled when parents became volunteers. However, I soon found out that 4-H events are large enough that your parents can chaperone someone else's group or handle a part of the event that wasn't directly working with me.

Over time, I also came to understand that the 4-H staff can only stretch so far—without dedicated volunteers, 4-H could not reach as many youth.

Here in Banks County, volunteers fill a variety of needs including chaperoning local events such as judging at Project Achievement, chaperoning day camps or a week of cloverleaf camp at Rock Eagle, or even leading an entire club such as shooting sports, horse club or teaching a club at school. If you are interested in volunteering, please call the 4-H Office and we will make sure that you have the application and necessary paperwork.

Volunteers positively impact the lives of youth everyday in Georgia 4-H, and we look forward to having you join our team.
