Running for Athens-Clarke County 4-H

Ninety-three runners from all over Georgia and several other states completed the 3.1 mile race course at Sandy Creek Park on Sunday, October 4th for the 3rd annual Clover 5K Road Race. Proceeds from the race will go to help lower costs for upcoming 4-H events for the 4-H'ers. Thanks for all who participated and helped out to make this year's race a great success!

4-H CHALLENGE BOWL

The 4-H Challenge Bowl is an exciting competition held during the Georgia National Fair in Perry, Georgia every October. Teams must have members from each of the age levels of 4-H. Challenge Bowl is a fast-paced quiz bowl where participants must be quick on the buzzer to answer questions about 4-H history and other selected topics. ACC 4-H again sent a team to Challenge Bowl competition this year to compete with 21 other teams from across the state. This year's team members were: Team Captain, Asha Mathis; Chris Silcox, Kira Pollack, Patrick Silcox and Mackenzie Wurst. Congratulations on a job well done!
