Jan 13 “Seed Starting” Electa Keil, Master Gardener

Electa will introduce newcomers to the ABC's of seed starting and for advanced gardeners the art of starting perennials from seeds.

Feb.10 “Edible Gardening” Louise Weyer, Master Gardener

No room for a separate vegetable garden? Learn how ornamentals and edibles planted together make an attractive, unusual and functional blend in the landscape. Louise will suggest plant selections and how to care for and maintain your edible garden.

Mar. 9 “Components of a Happy Seasonal Garden” Donna Kennedy, Master Gardener

Do you ever wonder why some gardens catch your eye? Donna will teach you how to use plant color, texture and movement in planning and planting your garden to make it one of those that stand out.

Apr. 13 “Not Your Average Herb Class” Victoria Blackstone, Master Gardener

Victoria not only covers herb history, their uses and culture but she moves on to more exotic topics. Have you heard of aspidity bags, water witching and herbs as murder weapons?

May 11 “Historical Plants” Sue Burgess, Master Gardener

Do you ever wonder where your favorite flower came from? Enrich your gardening experience with some history. Sue will introduce us to the origins of some of our familiar Georgia heirlooms.

Jun. 8 “Gardening with Children” Linda Hlozansky & Marge Igyarto, Master Gardeners

Share your love of gardening with the children in your life. Linda and Marge will give you ideas for outdoor activities and a list of books to entertain and educate on those bad-weather days.
