

Ready-to-Cook Grading

Grades – A, B, C

Factors

- Exposed flesh
- Disjointed & broken bones - A broken bone may be protruding (sticking through the skin) or non-protruding (not sticking through the skin).

Grade A

Grade A

Exposed Flesh - Breast & Legs  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch; Elsewhere 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  inches

Disjointed Bones - 1 Disjointed Bone; 0 Broken Bones

Missing Parts - Missing Wing Tips & Tail at Base

Grade B

Grade B

Exposed Flesh - No more than  $\frac{1}{3}$  of part; the flesh affected no more than thickness of a nickel ( $\frac{1}{8}$  inch)

Disjointed Bones - 2 Disjointed Bones; 0 Broken Bones; Or 1 Disjointed Bone; 1 Non-protruding Broken Bone; Or 0 Disjointed Bones; 1 Non-protruding Broken Bone

Missing Parts - Missing Wing to Second Joint & tail less than  $\frac{1}{2}$  way to hip joint; no wider than base

Grade C

Grade C

Exposed Flesh – No Limit to exposed flesh

Disjointed Bones – No limit; only grade that allows protruding broken bones

Missing Parts – Missing Whole Wing(s); tail more than  $\frac{1}{2}$  way to hip joint not wider than base of tail

