

Edda Cotto-Rivera recognized at the 2010 NEAFCS Annual Meeting for the regional and national levels

In September 2010, our three Family and Consumer Sciences agents (Edda Cotto-Rivera, Felecia Marable-Williams, and Jessica Hill) attended the National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS) Annual meeting in Portland, Maine. They had the opportunity to represent the county and the state in many positive and productive ways, by facilitating sessions and collaborating in different working committees of the association.

Edda Cotto-Rivera was recognized at the regional and national levels when she received awards for the work she did with the Hispanic media in the Atlanta metro area.

Edda receives the 2nd place Southern Regional Award from Southern Region Director Debbie Mathews for her Radio Series with "Manojos de Luz" radio program at 1040 AM. Her series of interventions also won the third place at the national level.

Edda Cotto-Rivera receives the 2nd National Communications Award from NEAFCS President Mary Ann Lienhart-Cross on the Category of Television for her program "Radon is Real" at the "Nuestra Georgia" television program of Univisión Channel 34 Atlanta.
