Gordon County 4-H

You can join Gordon County 4-H as a member or a leader by contacting the County Extension office at 706-629-8685. A University of Georgia Faculty or staff member will help you pursue involvement in our county and access to the world of opportunities in 4-H. Select from more than 50 project areas, participate in any of hundreds of events, apply for scholarships, and travel around the world. The county Extension office is the door of opportunity for you!

Membership guidelines for students: any person, regardless of race, color, national origin, gender, or disability may enroll as a 4-H member. There are opportunities in several 4-H Animal Projects for pre-club members (youth under the age of nine). Youth who are nine years of age and have not reached their nineteenth birthday on or before January 1, of the current year may enroll in 4-H clubs and groups. Persons considered to be mentally challenged may participate fully in the 4-H program regardless of age with special permission originating with their county agent and being approved by the State 4-H leader. Gordon County 4-H does not charge dues or require uniforms; however, there may be fees associated with certain events and programs.

Fill in the enrollment information below, bring it by the Cooperative Extension office and join 4-H today!
