DISTRICT PROJECT ACHIEVEMENT MARCH 17TH IN BACON COUNTY

Calling all 5th & 6th graders! It's YOUR turn to BLOSSOM in 4-H District Project Achievement! 4-H Project Achievement provides you the opportunity to "show how" while "telling how" in a project area that interests you. Check out the information sheet attached to this newsletter. There you will find the 4-H project areas, and ideas about preparing your demonstration, visuals and yourself.

You need to call the 4-H office by February 16 to sign up for District Project Achievement. A mandatory Parents' meeting will be held at the 4-H office on February 16 at 6:30 p.m. and on February 18 at 9 a.m. You only have to attend one meeting.

HOLD THE DATE: Wayne County's 5th & 6th grade 4-H'ers will compete at District Project Achievement in Bacon County on Saturday, March 17, 2012.

Start working on your demonstration NOW. Demo Days to work on your demonstration at the 4-H office will be Monday, Tuesday and Thursday after school till 5:00 pm. Please call to set up an appointment!

Each DPA participant will receive club points and a FREE trip to Star Castle in Savannah.
