“Surviving to Thriving: How to Empower the Poor through Simple Sustainable Agriculture Technology Solutions”

William Kisaalita Ph.D.

Dr. William Kisaalita has just returned from Uganda where he provides real-world solutions to problems of people at the bottom of the economic pyramid and enhances their earnings in a sustainable way. He will be sharing lessons learned in developing and successfully deploying these types of solutions in sub-Saharan Africa.

For more information, please contact Jessica Cudnik at sustainag@uga.edu