

Europe: Flowers and Photography

Embark on a transformative three-week journey to the Netherlands,

Belgium and France, where you will create awe-inspiring videos and photographs while exploring the captivating world of the floral industry. This immersive adventure through Europe's vibrant horticultural history begins in Amsterdam at the world-renowned Keukenhof Garden, known as the Garden of Europe, the largest tulip bulb planting in the world.

Traveling through cities such as Delft, Leuven, and Bruges, you will visit splendid gardens and historical landmarks including the famed Dutch windmills. You'll indulge in a delightful chocolate-making workshop in Belgium before embarking on a scenic journey to Paris, the City of Lights. Immerse yourself in the music, history and art of France with excursions to Giverny and Versailles to visit world-renowned gardens at the Claude Monet house and the magnificent Palace of Versailles. The trip culminates in Paris with visits to famous museums such as the Louvre and a nighttime stroll to the Eiffel Tower.

Enjoy unforgettable cultural experiences while gaining the skills, knowledge and inspiration to create media highlighting the beauty of horticulture and its value to culture and society. You will return home with captivating stories, enriched cultural perspectives, and a newfound passion for documenting horticulture's beauty and significance.

College of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Projected travel dates:

May term

Estimated cost:

$3,750 + UGA in-state tuition and fees + international airfare

global.uga.edu/scholarships

University of Georgia academic credit:

HORT 3900 and AGCM 4310 (6 hours)

Fulfills experiential learning requirement for CAES students

« For additional information about this course

TO APPLY, VISIT:

StudyAway.uga.edu

Flowers and Photography

Europe

